

Course name	Economic history
Course code	R.1sa.ECH.SI.RROEY
Department	Institute of Economic and Social Sciences
Faculty	Agriculture and Economics
Course supervisor/Lecturer	Jakub Piecuch
General information	Semester, please specify: winter/summer	winter/summer
	ECTS credits	3
	Lectures total	20hrs
	Classes/labs/field classes	0
Objective and general description	The course aims to familiarize students with current consequences of long-lasting development processes in World Economies. Economic History uses concepts and theories from the Social Sciences as a starting point for studying the development of current economies and understanding their problems in their social, political and cultural contexts.
Lectures	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The history of International Integration in Europe and World 2. Economic globalization and regionalization in a historical perspective, 3. The economic and social effects of local conflicts and world wars 4. Influence of education and human capital on economic change, 5. Change in social behavior in the past, 6. The history of economic development in the third world countries, 7. The causes of migration.
Assessment method	Oral presentations/individual projects/exam concerning the following aspects: essence, form, discussion and solving problems ability.
References	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. D. Begg, Economics, McGraw-Hill 2. P. A. Samuelson, Economics, McGraw-Hill 3. J. Sloman, Essentials of Economics, Pitman 4. Krugman , R. Wells, Worth Publishers, Microeconomics 	