

Subject name	Global Economy
Subject code	R.9XX.GE.SLM.RZEXX
Department	Institute of Economics and Enterprises Management
Faculty	Agriculture and Economics
Subject supervisor/Lecturer	Dr Andrzej Krasnodebski, Dr Iveta Zentkova
General information	semester	Summer semester
	ECTS credits	6
	Lectures total	15 hrs
	Classes	15 hrs
Objective and general description	Global Economy focuses on increasing economic interdependence of national economies across the world through a rapid increase in cross-border movement of goods, service, technology and capital, as well as on integrating developed economies with less developed economies by means of foreign direct, reduction of trade barriers etc. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Global World and Globalization, Trade and Globalization - 2h 2. The Economics of International Trade - 2h 3. Why Do Nations Trade, Trade Specialization - 2h 4. Government Regulation of Trade - 2h 5. Liberalization of International Trade 6. Globalization and Foreign Direct Investment 7. How to Measure Globalization of Economy
Assessment method	Valuating of student presentations on the given topic, written and oral exam.
References	Joshi, Rakesh Mohan, (2009) International Business, Oxford University Press, New Delhi and New York ISBN 0195689097	